

Jobs

Autos

Real Estate

Classifieds

HOMEPAGE

NEWS

OBITUARIES

SPORTS

LIFESTYLE

PHOTO GALLERY

OPINIONS

STATE NEWS

VIDEO

BLOGS

Hundreds gathered for free health fair

Photos

Zoom

By Allison B. Hudson
GateHouse News Service

Posted Nov 11, 2011 @ 02:31 PM

Recommend

Be the first of your friends to recommend this.

Donaldsonville, La. — This past Saturday hundreds gathered for the “Healthy Lifestyles, Healthy Communities 2011 Event” held at the Lemann Center in Donaldsonville.

The Henry Schein, Capitol City Family Health Center, City of Donaldsonville, and Louisiana Primary Care Association sponsored this event.

Residents were able to enjoy free health screenings for all ages, as well as, free food and games for kids.

Booths were set up for dental, vision, diabetes, asthma, hypertension, behavioral health, obesity, and chiropractic services.

Baton Rouge’s Max 94.1 Radio Station reported live for the event.

“We just want to thank everyone who came out and supported this event,” said Rhonda Litt, CEO of the Capitol City Family Health Center.

Copyright 2011 Donaldsonville Chief. Some rights reserved

